

Department of Language Pedagogy and Intercultural Studies, Faculty of Education,
Constantine the Philosopher University in Nitra
Dražovská 4, 949 76 Nitra, Slovakia is pleased to invite you to the International Conference of Student Research and Creative Activity, held under the patronage of the Dean of the Faculty of Education, CPU Prof. PhDr. Gabriela Porubská, CSc.

Foreign Languages and Cultures 2010

April 23, 2010

The conference will be dedicated to the:

- theoretical issues of the contemporary language pedagogy
- practical issues of the foreign language teaching
- foreign languages and cultures (intercultural studies)

The conference is intended for Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral students. The aim of the conference is to provide the students with the opportunity to present and mutually compare the results of their scholarly work at the national and international level.

Sections:

- English language and culture (procedural language – English)
- German language and culture (procedural language – German)
- Other languages and cultures (procedural language – Slovak)

All conference participants will obtain the attendance certificate. The winners of the conference contest will be awarded. Successful presentations will be published in the reviewed CD proceedings.

The committee will evaluate the students' presentations according to the following criteria:

- Content of the presentation
- Practical benefits of achieved results
- Form of the PowerPoint presentation
(<http://desktoppub.about.com/od/microsoft/bb/powerpointrules.htm>)
- Language proficiency level
- Answering questions in the discussion

The information about the registration form, deadlines and dates, participation conditions as well as the conference schedule will be available at www.klis.pf.ukf.sk

We are looking forward to meeting you!

Contact: Mgr. Ivana Žemberová, PhD., izemberova@ukf.sk; +421 37 6408 230-4.